BusinessWire posted this news \(http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20151007006223/en/INSE-RTING-REPLACING-Idera-Announces-Intent-Acquire-Embarcadero#.VhZywE1H70N\) about the no-longer-so-secret sale of Embarcadero to Idera. No informations about the future of the development tools under the new owner, which, not surprisingly, looks more interested in the database tools than the others - but it's too early (and too little info) to tell what will happen - although in my humble opinion telling something to customers would have been a good PR strategy - but once again, the soviet-like customer care of BorInCodeEmbDera continues..

Just one real hope - the new owner will get rid of those very people <G>.
